

New Seminar!

HISTORY OF ABORTION IN THE UNITED STATES

History of Abortion in the United States (HIST 393)

Winter 2023

M/W 3:30 to 4:50

This intensive seminar will look at how women in the past terminated pregnancies, the drive to restrict or outlaw abortion in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries, the relationship between abortion regulation and other questions of constitutional “privacy,” the reproductive rights and reproductive justice movements that emerged in the twentieth century, Roe v. Wade and other major Supreme Court decisions, the legalization of abortion and its consequences, and the anti-abortion movement of the 1970s and later.

To obtain permission, write Professor Kate Masur (kmasur@northwestern.edu).