Advanced Feminist Theory

Our collective endeavor is to think through a set of enduring feminist conversations. We will grapple with keywords that have animated feminist dialogue for decades including performance, pleasure, labor, archive, university, and lesbian. Readings include selections by Kathi Weeks, Silvia Federici, Patricia J. Williams, Audre Lorde, Judith Butler, Luce Irigaray, Catharine MacKinnon, Juana Maria Rodriguez, Ann DuCille, and Erica Edwards. Please note that though this class has historically been offered as “Advanced Feminist Theory,” it does not presume that students have completed another feminist theory course.
